WMU created Children’s Missions Day to move children out of their churches and into their communities to do missions. The first Children’s Missions Day was held in 2008. Since then, thousands of people have taken part in this special day.

Mt. Zion’s Girls in Action (GA’s) and Kids Outdoor Zone (KOZ) will be joining with kids across the country today in hands-on ministry in their communities. The GA’s will be working on fleece blankets for the Hope for Appalachia ministry and the KOZ boys will be assisting people in the community with small projects around their homes. Please be in prayer for the children and leaders as they prepare to follow God’s command to “put your love into action” (1 John 3:18).

DEADLINE FOR RISE AGAINST HUNGER FUNDS
Wednesday, February 17, 2021

A Meal Packing Event cannot be held due to the pandemic. The Executive Board voted to send in the funds that were carried over and all Rise Against Hunger funds received by February 17, 2021. These funds will be used by Rise Against Hunger in partnership with organizations in several countries for hungry people. The partnering organization will purchase food in-country (stimulating the local economy) and will distribute it to people in need. The need in many places has doubled since COVID-19 began. What a great ministry we will be providing to help meet these needs!

JRBA MISSIONS BLITZ PROJECT

Dear JRBA Family,
I just want to update and send another word of thanks. Because of your continued partnership and support, we were able to help another family in need of a ramp. Their ramp was so rotten that we were able to tear it down without using a single tool! The boards just peeled right off. A team from Antioch – Scottsville (Rev. Dave Vogt, Joe Shaheen, Dewey Parteuch, and Drew Mauk) and myself worked on the ramp – yes, even pastors know how to use power tools! All that to say, we were able to build a new ramp and help this family due to the funds raised by our churches. Thank you and I am hoping to keep you updated and plugged in as more projects are undertaken. God bless each of you.

Rev. Michael Khol

MISSIONS COMMITTEE

February 2021

- I. RISE AGAINST HUNGER: Since we will not be able to have a packaging project anytime soon, we are planning to send the Rise Against Hunger money given to our Association to the Richmond branch (the Lynchburg warehouse has closed due to the pandemic). Rise Against Hunger will send the funds to a partnering organization in an extremely poor country to be used to buy food locally and then distributed to those in need. We are pleased that we have $6,607 in Rise Against Hunger gifts as of January 1, 2021. These gifts plus gifts received by Wednesday, February 17, 2021, will be sent to Rise Against Hunger to help feed many hungry people. So, please give generously in your church by February 14, so that we can feed many people around the world who are in need of food.
- II. HOPE FOR APPALACHIA: Boxes for needy children of Appalachia are being collected between now and Wednesday, February 24. All members of our churches are asked to pick up a Hope Box instruction sheet at your church, carefully follow the instructions, and turn your boxes in to the JRBA office, Tar Wallet church, or Mt. Zion Mission House. Your boxes will bless many lives. (Check page 3 of the newsletter for specific information or the flyers at your church.)
- III. BLUE RIDGE FOOD MINISTRY: This project continues to provide nourishing food to about 300 families on the second and fourth Friday of each month. Please join us at the Crystal Cathedral by 9:30 AM on those Fridays and bless many lives and find a true blessing through serving Jesus and feeding the hungry.
- IV. Thanks for all the mission work our churches continue to carry out. Let us be innovative as we find the best ways to serve others during these difficult days.

Rev. Jimmy Dunn

CHURCH OUTREACH

ANTIOCH (SCOTTSVILLE): Rev. D. J. Carter from Thrive (former Pregnancy Center of Central Virginia) was the guest speaker at Antioch on Sunday, January 17. A love offering of $3,000 was collected for this ministry. Antioch continues their partnership with pastors in Africa and India by sending love offerings. COVID-19 has prevented members from traveling overseas this year.

ANTIOCH UNION: Members are working on their Hope for Appalachia boxes this month.

BUCKINGHAM: $100.00 has been contributed to Christ in Christmas Chain. Members are currently working on Hope for Appalachia boxes and plans are being made to provide meals for the Appalachia Hope Team. Contributions are also being collected for Rise Against Hunger.

CEDAR: Baptist Women on Mission have been collecting for the Hope for Appalachia boxes during January.

CHESTNUT GROVE: Members continue to volunteer at the Blue Ridge Food distributions each month.

FIRST BAPTIST DILLWYN:

- A. Helping Hands is calling upon the members of FBC to bring homemade soup and desserts to church on Sunday, February 14. Church members will deliver these delicious items to homebound members of the church and community that afternoon.
- B. Helping Hands gave a financial gift to Buckingham County High School to help students in financial need purchase graduation items and/or other needs, gave goodie baskets, gift cards, and financial gifts to quite a few persons with special needs, sent over 50 cards to persons in nursing homes and others who are lonely, and made phone calls and some visits to bring encouragement to lonely folks.

JONES CHAPEL: Members are contributing to Rise Against Hunger and Hope boxes through mid-February.

MT. ZION: The WMU is collecting socks and making some quilts and blankets. With the pandemic, they only have one lady sewing at home and two others making "no sew" blankets, for Hope for Appalachia.

MULBERRY GROVE: Members are donating to Rise Against Hunger and working on Hope for Appalachia boxes for the Easter trip. Individuals continue to volunteer at the bimonthly food distribution at the Crystal Cathedral. The outreach ministry is ongoing with calls, food, cards, and the delivery of church literature.

JRBA LEARNS AND GROWS>>>

GLADSTONE MEMORIAL just finished a study of Psalm 23, learning much from those 6 special verses!

JONES CHAPEL had Rev. Lewis Brandt as guest speaker on January 3, while Pastor Richard recovered from surgery.

MT. ZION'S GA's had a Lottie Moon Tea Party on December 23, to learn about and celebrate Ms. Lottie's work. They learned many interesting facts about Ms. Lottie's life and had some of her famous tea cakes along with other Christmas snacks and wassail. Activities included making gingerbread houses and playing Christmas-themed games. The GA's set a group goal of collecting $100 for the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering. The girls did chores and small jobs at home during December and gave the money they earned to the offering. Along with the offerings that were given through their Lottie Moon Post Office the GA's contributed $408 to Mt. Zion's goal. In January, the GA's have learned about missionary John Bai who is from China, and serving in Washington state as a church planter. Their lesson was about the apostle Paul and how he served with joy even while in prison. They celebrated Three Kings Day on January 6, by dressing as kings and tasting Kings' Cake. They also made paper Chinese lanterns with their memory verse for the month – One thing has become clear. I am being held by chains because I am a witness for Christ. All the palace guards and everyone else know it. Philippians 1:13.

MULBERRY GROVE: On Monday, February 8, at 7:00 PM, the Grove is beginning a 12-part teaching series from "The Genesis Academy". This will also be offered at a separate time on Thursdays at 10:00 AM, beginning February 11. Each session will include a 12 – 40 minute video that will be followed by 20 minutes of discussion. During the Monday night study, a separate video study is going to be offered for younger children.

JRBA PASTORS' HUDDLE

On January 20, while our nation was watching President Biden's Inauguration, JRBA pastors gathered together for a time of prayer and uplifting one another. There were 6 of us who were able to meet that day. I encourage each pastor to join us next time we gather on February 17 (that will be Ash Wednesday). We will meet as always at First Baptist Dillwyn at noon. Hope to see you there.

Michael

OPPORTUNITY TO SERVE>>>

The JRBA WMU is sponsoring The Pregnancy Support Center, located in Farmville with satellites in Dillwyn, Appomattox, and Amelia, in their fundraiser of filling baby bottles with change. 50+ bottles have been distributed to date. Churches or groups are encouraged to fill the bottles, especially purchased by the Pregnancy Center, and fill them with change. Of course, folding money and checks are welcome also. ☺

The Pregnancy Center has been dedicated to helping women, men, teens, and families in Southside Virginia since 1984. The number to call for help is 434-392-8483. They provide pregnancy testing, prenatal and infant care classes, baby clothes and supplies, parenting classes, counseling assistance and referrals, and character development programs. The Center in Dillwyn is at Ellis Acres at 245 Camden St. It is open on Tuesdays from noon to 5:00 PM. Call Betty Toney at 434-983-2232 for more information and to obtain the baby bottles. You may participate in this fundraiser at any time and it is suggested that you allow about 4 weeks to collect the change.

BCM UPDATE>>>

Our BCM semester is off to a good start. Students returned to campus in mid-January and BCM is resuming its usual semester activities. Our Bible studies have gotten off to a strong start - this semester students are learning what it looks like to care for their spiritual health. We've had to make some adjustments to our large group gathering. Due the new 10-person limit for gatherings on campus, we have split our large group night into 3 sessions. Students can sign up for sessions to attend. So far this has been well received by the students, and it has been great to continue our in-person worship. Splitting the group seems to be creating a space where deeper friendships can form as students get to know each other better in these smaller groups.

This semester we are also planning to host "pop up" events. These will be fun social events or spiritual workshops hosted at random times throughout the week. Our hope is that these will provide a new fun way to connect with students while also staying under our 10-person limit. Our primary goals for this semester are to provide meaningful ways for students to connect with one another and to provide opportunities for them to grow spiritually.

Thank you for your continued support and prayer for our ministry!

Austin Williams
